PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d)(1), and for good cause shown, the Court hereby grants the motion of the United States for entry of a Protective Order prescribing the manner in which the defendant Brian Michael Rini and his counsel must handle certain materials that have been produced by the United States.

IT IS on this 2nd day of May, 2019,

ORDERED,

1. The government is authorized to disclose the discovery in its possession, which the government believes is necessary to comply with the discovery obligations imposed by this Court.

2. The materials produced by the government may be used by the defendant, defendant's counsel and any employees, agents, or investigators of defendant's counsel solely in the defense of this case.

3. Defendant's counsel or defendant will not disclose any of the sensitive or private information contained in the discovery material directly, or indirectly, to any person except those

7. Defendant's counsel will inform the defendant of the provisions of this Protective Order, and direct him not to disclose or use any information contained in the government's discovery, in violation of this Protective Order. However, nothing contained in this Protective Order will preclude any party from applying to the Court for further relief or for modification of any provision hereof.
